Dear Sir,

I noticed in the History of the U. S. Mint & Coinage of Evans of 1892, that a silver half dollar of 1827 sold for $171.00. I have one of 1827 & one of 1834, answering exactly to the description and cut given in that book. The half dollar of 1834 is very finely preserved and the one of 1827 has very much very distinct on it, but it is rather more worn than the other. Will you kindly quote me your highest price for such coins, & oblige!

Yours respectfully,
(Rev.) W. L. Calhoun,
